

Syntex IMPACT Enterprise® to host workshop at VPPPA's Annual Conference

Joe Stough, Founder Syntex Management Systems to Co-Present alongside Arkema, Inc.

Houston, TX (July 6, 2006) --- Syntex Management Systems, Inc., a provider of Enterprise Risk Management (ERM) software solutions, is pleased to announce that Syntex is scheduled to exhibit and host a workshop at VPPPA's 22nd Annual National Conference at 10:00am on August 30, 2006 at the Orlando World Center Marriott in Orlando, Florida. The workshop entitled "Management System Execution Tools" presented by William L. Duke of Arkema, Inc. and co-presented by Syntex Founder, Joe Stough, will provide demonstration and interactive discussion on how organizations that are proactive in their operational risk management processes are applying comprehensive workflow-enabled software applications to more efficiently and effectively enable management systems execution.

The National VPPPA Conference is held annually to provide occupational safety, health and environmental leaders with networking and educational offerings, up-to-the-minute legislative information, industry advancements, preferred vendors and consultants dedicated to VPP, mentoring opportunities, professional development and volunteer opportunities.

IMPACT Enterprise®, a powerful, comprehensive Enterprise Risk Management solution that helps companies dramatically improve Health, Safety and Environmental (HSE) performance will be among the products that will be exhibited. Today, global industry leaders deploy IMPACT Enterprise worldwide to reduce losses and improve performance by automating regulatory reporting and enabling in-depth analysis of key HSE metrics at site and enterprise levels. The software solution seamlessly integrates Incident, Near Miss and Investigation Tracking with critical proactive processes such as corrective action and assessment management, knowledge sharing, and comprehensive analysis and reporting for effective course correction and continual improvement.
